

I am a current xm radio user, and i believe it should be left alone afterall we pay for the service ,we listen to their service by chose.Why interupt or change something that people pay for if you dont like it dont listen to it. Very simular to cable tv or a movie we live in america and we have the right to listen,watch what we want to.I f it bothers a individual dont purchase the service.